

Let's go to the cinema!

1. After watching "Beetlejuice" and "The Wall", choose True or False.

- |    |                                                                          |      |       |
|----|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|-------|
| 1. | It's a comedy horror film.                                               | True | False |
| 2. | It's about a shipwreck.                                                  | True | False |
| 3. | It talks about a life after death. Barbara and Adam Maitland are dead.   | True | False |
| 4. | The characters represent different stereotypes.                          | True | False |
| 5. | Beetlejuice is an innocent character and Lydia is serious and sensitive. | True | False |

- |     |                                                                                                 |      |       |
|-----|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|-------|
| 6.  | The Wall is a surrealistic musical drama type of film.                                          | True | False |
| 7.  | It's a comedy.                                                                                  | True | False |
| 8.  | It's about different topics such as, violence, insanity and an out-of-touch educational system. | True | False |
| 9.  | The protagonist lost his mother in the 2 nd World War.                               | True | False |
| 10. | It shows how emotional troubles can damage relationships.                                       | True | False |

