

Home-share

I want a room in a home-share!

READING

Scan

Scan the email. What's the young woman's name? How old is she?

READING

Read for main ideas

Read Ms. Brooks's email to Amanda. Which questions does she answer?

1. Where is the house?
2. How many rooms are in the house?
3. How many people live in the house?
4. What are their jobs?
5. How old are they?

LISTENING

Asking about a home-share

Listen to the phone conversation between Amanda and Mr. Brown about another home-share. Check the questions that Amanda asks.

1. Where is it?
2. Is it small?
3. Is it big?
4. How many rooms are in the house?
5. How many bedrooms are in the house?
6. How many bathrooms are in the house?
7. How many people live there?
8. Who are they?
9. What are their jobs?
10. How old are they?

PREPARE TO SPEAK

Asking about a home-share

Complete the conversation. Then listen and check your answers.

Mr. Brown Hello?

Amanda Hi. My name is Amanda. I'm calling about the home-share.

Mr. Brown Hi, Amanda. It's a nice house.

Amanda Great. <sup>1</sup> _____ is it?

Mr. Brown <sup>2</sup> _____ on Third Street.

Amanda <sup>3</sup> _____ it big?

Mr. Brown It <sup>4</sup> _____ very big. It has five rooms.

Amanda Oh. How many bedrooms <sup>5</sup> _____ in the house?

Mr. Brown Two bedrooms.

Amanda OK. <sup>6</sup> _____ people live there?

Mr. Brown One. She's a student at New York University.

Amanda Oh! I'm a student at New York University, too!