

Grammar training

State or Action?

Look at the sentences below and choose the correct answer in each space.

1. I think/ am thinking my brother is still at the library; he loves studying there.
2. He is/ is being such a great friend, always there to help me out.
3. These jeans fit/ are fitting perfectly; I don't need to try another size.
4. I see/ am seeing a strange car parked outside the house.
5. This soup tastes/ is tasting delicious, much better than last time.
6. He appears/ is appearing in a new film that's coming out this summer.
7. The dog smells/ is smelling around the garden, probably looking for something.
8. The shop assistant weighs/ is weighing the fruit to calculate the cost.
9. I think/ am thinking about joining the basketball team this semester.
10. She tastes/ is tasting the wine to see if it's good enough for the guests.
11. We have/ are having dinner at a nice restaurant this evening.
12. She looks/ is looking at the new apartment listings online.
13. He is/ is being really annoying today, more than usual.
14. She feels/ is feeling her pulse because she just finished a workout.
15. This bag weighs/ is weighing more than the luggage allowance, I need to unpack.
16. The builders fit/ are fitting a new window in the kitchen right now.
17. She appears/ is appearing tired, maybe she didn't get enough sleep.
18. I think/ am thinking my best friend is mad at me, but I'm not sure why.
19. The shop fits/ is fitting my skateboard with new wheels right now.
20. This pizza tastes/ is tasting way better than the one we had last week.
21. You look/ are looking like you didn't sleep at all last night.
22. We have/ are having a party at my place this weekend, and you're invited!