My Father

The person I like very much is my father. He is strong and hardworking. My father always helps me when I need him. He teaches me many things, like how to solve problems and stay calm. I like him because he is patient and always takes time to talk to me. He gives me good advice and listens when I have something to say. My father works hard to take care of our family, and I admire his strength. He also makes me laugh and tells me funny stories. I feel safe and happy when I am with him. I like spending time with my father because we do fun things together, like playing sports or watching TV. He teaches me to be strong and never give up. That is why I like my father very much.
