Read the description and check the ideas that describe a sense and those that describe an action

- S "If you're blind, although you CAN'T SEE, you can still ENJOY a fulfilling and enriching life. Nevertheless, the absence of sight does make you more VULNERABLE to certain challenges, as you may MISS OUT on visual details and experiences that others take for granted."
- S "I would find it deeply distressing if I COULDN'T SEE what things or people LOOKE LIKE. The ability to visualize is so integral to my experience of the world that losing it would be profoundly unsettling."
- S "I recently read an article about a man who lost his hearing and later had it RESTORED. He DESCRIBED how isolating it can be when you CAN'T HEAR. The lack of auditory input can SEVERELY AFFECT your sense of connection to others and the world around you."
- A "He expressed that he REALLY MISSED LISTENING to music; he considered it the most challenging aspect of his deafness. Additionally, not being able to HEAR his wife's voice was particularly HEARTBREAKING for him."
- S "I COULD SEE the palm trees, TASTE the delicious food, and FEEL the warmth of the sun on my skin. Each of these senses added to a richly textured experience of my surroundings."
- S "They COULD FEEL the vibrations of the drums, even though they COULDN'T HEAR the sounds. The physical sensation of the vibrations provided a tangible connection to the music, compensating for their loss of auditory perception."
- S "I have an extraordinary ability to TASTE nuances that others might overlook. For instance, when someone COOKS for me, I can DISCERN which spices have been used, a detail that often ESCAPES others."

Discuss the difference in the meaning of the words in italics

- 1A I can see John. He's right over there, standing next to the bar.
1B I'm seeing John tomorrow. I'll let him know what we've decided.
- 2A I could hear strange sounds coming from downstairs, so I decided to go and investigate.
2B I've been hearing great things about you recently. You must be doing really well.
- 3A I'm not feeling very well. I think I'm going to go and lie down for a while.
3B That heater's really good! I can feel the heat from here.
- 4A I'm just tasting the soup to see if I need to add any more salt.
4B I really can't taste the difference between butter and margarine.

Which is the best option to complete the ideas?

- a I think my eyesight is failing. I can't see / I'm not seeing as well as I used to.
- b A: Can I hear / Am I hearing things, or is there a pig in your bathroom?
B: No! It's the fan. It makes a strange noise.
- c Hey, Greg, can you taste / are you tasting this for me? I'm not sure if I need to add more salt.
- d I sat in the backyard hearing / listening to the birds singing in the trees.
- e Are you on YouTube™? What are you seeing / watching? Anything interesting?
- f We used to live above a café. We could always smell / were always smelling fresh bread and coffee in the morning. Delicious!
- g I could hear / 've heard some strange things about the new boss. Are they true?
- h I don't know what it is between those two, but I can sense / 'm sensing a lot of tension.
