3 SPEAKING!

Share opinions and experiences about the following situations:

- Wearing uncomfortable shoes for a party
- Buying clothes from widely known brands
- Wearing vintage inspired looks
- Arriving late to a place because you can't decide what to wear
- Roughly adjusting your own clothes to make them more fitted
- Having the feeling like you have NOTHING to wear

NOTE:
Remember to use some confusing ADVERBS and ADJECTIVES

MODAL VERBS!

Select the correct use for each one:

You must not wear jeans in this exclusive club; they strictly enforce a formal dress code.

You should avoid wearing rough fabrics to the interview; softer materials look more professional.

You must wear a formal suit to the wedding, as it's a black-tie event.

You should choose a wide-brimmed hat for the garden party to stay stylish and protected from the sun.

You don't have to wear a tie at this party; the dress code is quite relaxed.

You need to arrive in a late 20th-century-themed outfit; it's the requirement for the retro party.

MORE EXPRESSIONS!

Write the expressions of permission or prohibition in the tense you consider correct:

You_____ wear casual clothes on Fridays at the office (be allowed to)

Wearing hats_____ during the official ceremony last year (be permitted)

The workers_____ wearing non-uniform clothing during work hours since last September. (be prohibited from)

If only my parents _____ me buy that designer dress for the prom! (let)

She _____ attending the fashion events over for five years. (to be banned from)

People _____ wear overly revealing outfits at this religious site. (to be forbidden to)

We _____ wear flip-flops in the upscale restaurant when we visited Perú. (be allowed to)

LIVEWORKSHEETS