

Activity Title: "Mystery of the Missing Backpack!"

Instructions:

Read the following story and answer the questions that follow. Pay attention to subject and object pronouns!

Story:

Yesterday, Tom went to school, but he forgot something important—his backpack! He was worried all day. When he got home, he asked his sister, Lucy, "Did you see my backpack?" Lucy smiled and said, "No, I didn't. But maybe Dad knows where it is."

Tom called his dad and asked, "Did you take my backpack by accident?" His dad laughed, "No, I didn't take it, but I found it in the car." Tom was so happy. "Can you bring it home?" he asked. "Of course, I'll bring it," said Dad. When Tom got his backpack, he thanked both his sister and his dad.

Part 1: True or False (5 minutes)

Read each statement and decide if it's true or false.

1. Tom lost his lunch at school.
 2. Lucy said that she saw Tom's backpack.
 3. Tom's dad found the backpack in the school.
 4. Tom thanked his sister and his dad.
 5. Lucy brought the backpack home.
-

Part 2: Multiple Choice (5 minutes)

Choose the correct pronoun to complete the sentences.

1. (He/They) was worried because he lost his backpack.
 2. Tom asked Lucy if (he/she) saw his backpack.
 3. Dad said, "(I/You) found your backpack in the car."
 4. Tom thanked (him/her) and his dad.
 5. (He/She) took the backpack home for Tom.
-

Part 3: Open-Ended Questions (10 minutes)

Write your answers in complete sentences. Use the correct subject and object pronouns.

1. Who lost his backpack?
2. Who did Tom ask about his backpack?
3. Where did Tom's dad find it?
4. What did Tom say to his dad when he got his backpack back?
5. How did Tom feel when he found out where his backpack was?

Bonus Fun Question (Optional):

Imagine you're Tom. Write a sentence explaining how you would ask a friend for help using subject and object pronouns.