

Do you agree to these ideas?

1. Social media can bring out both positive and negative aspects of our personalities, often highlighting traits that might not be visible in face-to-face interactions.
 2. Many people hang out online with friends and family, using social media to stay connected and share experiences even when they can't meet in person.
 3. It's easy to miss out on important updates or events if you're not actively engaging with your social media feeds.
 4. The vast amount of content on social media can make it challenging to figure out which posts or news are most relevant or trustworthy.
 5. Social media platforms often stand out as major sources of news and information, influencing public opinion and trends.
 6. Users frequently point out issues or raise awareness about social causes through their posts and online campaigns.
 7. To manage the influx of information and interactions, many people need to sort out their notifications and prioritize their online engagements.
 8. If you're not careful, social media can be overwhelming, causing you to get out of touch with real-world activities and relationships.
- A. I'm completely on board
- B. I'm generally on the same page with the statement, although...
- C. I'm not quite buying into the statement.
- D. I flat-out disagree with the statement.

Vocabualry

- | | |
|---------------|---|
| a. get out | A. To identify or highlight something specific |
| b. point out | B. To discover or understand something after some thought |
| c. stand out | C. To be noticeably different or special |
| d. bring out | D. To spend time relaxing or socializing |
| e. miss out | E. To fail to experience or take advantage of something |
| f. hang out | F. To remove or escape from a situation |
| g. figure out | G. To make something more noticeable or prominent |
| h. sort out | H. To organize or resolve something |

Complete the sentences with the correct phrase

- a. get out
- b. point out
- c. stand out
- d. bring out
- e. miss out
- f. hang out
- g. figure out
- h. sort out

1. Social media gatherings can _____ interesting aspects of a person's character that might not be evident in their daily posts.
2. If you don't check your notifications regularly, you might _____ on important updates or invitations from your friends.
3. When planning a group video call, it's crucial to _____ any technical issues with the software to ensure a smooth experience for everyone.
4. Many people use social media platforms to _____ with their friends by sharing photos and messages, even if they can't meet in person.
5. To _____ the most effective way to engage with your audience during an online event, you may need to try different interactive tools and strategies.
6. During a live-streamed event, the most interesting discussions often _____ as the ones that receive the most comments and reactions from the viewers.
7. If you're not active on social media, you might _____ on trending topics and discussions that are popular among your peers.
8. Before participating in an online discussion, it's helpful to _____ how you want to contribute to the conversation to make sure your points are clear and relevant.

Tips to cope with social media

- In my eyes....
- Some people say that...
- It is generally accepted that....
- My impression is that....
- I hold the view that....

