

PRONOUN AGREEMENT Practice

ALL the pronouns in a sentence must agree - they must be ALL singular or ALL plural. For example: Why did someone (singular) put his (singular) book in the trash can?

Make your choice from the parentheses and choose it in the box provided.

1. Someone will miss the bus if (she, they) take much longer to get ready.
2. Please make sure everything is in (its,their) proper place.
3. Why did someone hang (her, their) wet swimsuit on the doorknob?
4. One of the women bumped the display with (her, their) shopping cart.
5. Many of the athletes registered as soon as (he, they) arrived.
6. Mr. Hall lent us (his, their) lawn mower for the day.
7. The paintings are beautiful, but (it, they) are expensive.
8. Ralph did well on (his, their) social studies test.
9. Chop up the almonds and place (it, them) in the bowl.
10. The girls want to go out to eat with me and (he, him)
11. The teacher and (they, them) went outside for a break.
12. The boy told the principal and (she, her) that he missed the bus home.
13. Can you or (he, him) tell me the correct answer please?
14. One of the girls (works, work) at the local grocery store.
15. Everyone in the library (reads, read) quietly.
16. Few of the students (passes, pass) the driving test the first time.