

Listen to Track 11 on the DVD.

Questions

Directions: Mark your answer by filling in the oval or square next to your choice.

1. Why does the student go to see the professor?
 - To prepare for her graduate school interview
 - To get advice about her graduate school application
 - To give the professor her graduate school application
 - To find out if she was accepted into graduate school
2. According to the professor, what information should the student include in her statement of purpose?
Choose 2 answers.
 - Her academic motivation
 - Her background in medicine
 - Some personal information
 - The ways her teachers have influenced her
3. What does the professor consider unusual about the student's background?
 - Her work experience
 - Her creative writing experience
 - Her athletic achievements
 - Her music training
4. Why does the professor tell a story about his friend who went to medical school?
 - To warn the student about how difficult graduate school can be
 - To illustrate a point he is making
 - To help the student relax
 - To change the subject
5. What does the professor imply about the people who admit students to graduate school?
 - They often lack expertise in the fields of the applicants.
 - They do not usually read the statement of purpose.
 - They are influenced by the appearance of an application.
 - They remember most of the applications they receive.