

1. ancient	a. to help somebody to do something
2. ask after	b. think that you are better than
3. assist	c. surprise
4. audience	d. support in an argument or fight
5. bad-tempered	e. pleasant and easy to like
6. disabled	f. often angry; in an angry mood
7. get on with	g. not wanting to do something and refusing to do it
8. grow up	h. not known or identified
9. likeable	i. kind to somebody who is hurt or sad; showing that you understand and care about their problems
10. look down on	j. keep treating someone badly or unfairly
11. ordinary	k. having the usual qualities or features of a particular type of person, thing or group
12. pick on	l. having or showing good manners and respect for the feelings of others
13. please	m. having a condition that makes it difficult for you to do some things that most other people can do
14. polite	n. have a good relationship with
15. sensible	o. belonging to a period of history that is thousands of years in the past
16. settle down	p. become older
17. stand up for	q. become calm after being upset
18. sympathetic	r. ask for news about
19. take aback	s. a number of people or a particular group of people who watch, read, or listen to the same thing
20. typical	t. (of people and their behaviour) able to make good judgements based on reason and experience rather than emotion; practical
21. unknown	u. to make somebody happy
22. unwilling	v. not unusual or different in any way

1. approval	a. They required/received _____ for the proposal from the shareholders.
2. care	b. Who's taking _____ of the children while you're away?
3. disguised	c. They fell in _____ with each other.
4. love	d. They got in _____ as security guards.
5. friends	e. I'm just not in the _____ for a party tonight.
6. mood	f. I could only feel _____ for what they were enduring.
7. pity	g. However, things didn't go quite as well during their first date and the two decided to stay _____ rather than pursue anything more.