FUNDACIÓN EDUCATIVA DE MONTELÍBANO

TRABAJO VIRTUAL / ASIGNATURA: Inglés / CURSO: Octavo Avanzado
I TRIMESTRE 2020

Profesor: Paula Ximena Morales Pérez E-Mail: pmorales@colfem.edu.co

Propósito: Responder preguntas en un ejercicio de escucha práctico.

Fecha de envío: Abril 4 de 2020 Fecha de entrega: Abril 4 de 2020 Tiempo estimado de trabajo: 60 minutos

SCHOOL RULES: Are these school rules good or bad? What would you change? Complete this chart

	Good / Bad?	Changes
Hair
Uniform
Homework
Attendance
Mobile phones
Jewelry

Listen to the audio and organize the text according to it:

( ) damaged. The girl also suffered from stress throughout her three years at high school.
( ) embarrassment to her. This caused her psychological damage. She said that a teacher told her that she should ( ) not come to school if she didn't dye her hair. The girl said that she was so stressed one ( ) day that she collapsed and had to be taken to hospital by ambulance.
( ) black. The third-year student attended a high school in the city of Habikino, just east of Osaka. Even though she had ( ) accept her hair was naturally brown. She was banned from school trips and school festivals because ( ) of her brown hair. The girl told the court that teachers said things to her in front of the class that caused great
(1) An 18-year-old girl in Japan is suing her local government after her school told her to dye her hair ( ) naturally brown hair, the school repeatedly told her to dye it black. She said she had to dye her hair black to follow ( ) the school's rules. Japan's 'Mainichi' newspaper reported that school staff started telling the girl to dye her hair every ( ) on October 27th that the school bullied her for three years to dye her hair. She said that the school would not
( ) The student is suing the local government for $20,000 in damages. She told the court
( ) one to two weeks. In her second year, this changed to once every four days. The student's mother said
( ) her daughter eventually developed a rash on her scalp and that her hair became badly

Now listen again and answer the questions:

1) Who is an 18-year-old girl suing?
a) her teachers
b) her local government
c) her school
d) the national government

2) What colour is the girl's real hair?
a) white
b) red
c) blonde
d) brown

3) What did the girl have to follow?
a) school rules
b) orders
c) teachers
d) other students

4) How often did the school tell the girl to dye her hair in the second grade?
a) once in a blue moon
b) twice a month
c) once every four days
d) two times every three weeks

5) What did the girl suffer from at school?
a) nerves
b) stress
c) panic attacks
d) poor grades

6) How much is the girl suing the school for?
a) $20,000
b) $30,000
c) $40,000
d) $50,000

7) What was the girl stopped from attending?
a) English classes
b) sports days
c) school trips
d) a hair salon

8) Where did teachers embarrass her?
a) in front of class
b) in a shopping mall
c) everywhere
d) at her home

9) What kind of damage did the girl say her treatment caused her?
a) psychological damage
b) physiological damage
c) physical damage
d) physics damage

10) How did the girl get to hospital?
a) by car
b) by bicycle
c) by taxi
d) by ambulance

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Complete the chart:

Problem:
Advice1:
Advice 2:
Advice3:

LIVEWORKSHEETS