

Complete the sentences with the prepositions about, for, with, at, of or in

ADJ

1. Harry is excellent _____ maths.
2. I'm very fond _____ my neighbour Madge.
3. Tina is anxious _____ her exams.
4. Mary is proficient _____ English.
5. I'm hopeless _____ French.
6. They are both qualified _____ the job, but James has more experience.
7. I can't stay; I'm late _____ my guitar lesson.
8. I'm worried _____ Henry; he's not usually this late.
9. Gertrude is always patient _____ her children.
10. The children get bored easily _____ their new toys.

Match the phrasal verbs in bold to their definitions a-i.

PHRASAL VERBS

1. The art class was making so much noise that Mr Jenkins came in and told the students off.
2. We break up on 26 June and go back to school on 13 August.
3. Read Chapter 2 and sum it up in under fifty words.
4. I am going to be working in Rome for three months; I need to brush up on my Italian.
5. I missed school last week and need to catch up.
6. It's very hard to keep up with the rest of the class because I'm a beginner, whereas most of them have been learning German for at least a year.
7. Jane has been poring over the manual for an hour and she still can't find the solution.
8. Are you going to sign up for the pottery class?

- a. to give a short description of something with the main facts or ideas
- b. to maintain the same level
- c. to let somebody or an organisation know that you will be participating in something
- d. to express disapproval to somebody for something they did wrong
- e. to spend time looking at something carefully
- f. to recall and improve your knowledge of something which you have neglected
- g. to return
- h. to reach the same level as others
- i. to stop having lessons when a school closes for a holiday

1. A: Are you buried (1) _____ your books again?

B: I have to study. I've got exams next week.

A: You'll be fine. With the amount you know, you'll sail (2) _____ your exams.

B: I only know that much because this year I've been studying really hard. Last year I fell (3) _____ because I was ill and I only just scraped (4) _____ my exams. I thought I was going to have to drop (5) _____.

A: Okay, well, good luck with your exams then!

2. A: I'm going to hand (6) _____ the books at the end of the lesson.

B: How much would you like us to read?

A: I'd just like you to skim (7) _____ the first chapter and jot down what you think the book is going to be about.

B: Would you like us to hand (8) _____ our ideas?

A: No, we'll discuss your ideas in class tomorrow.