

Describing personalities

a. Fill the descriptions with the adjective that belongs to each text.

Friendly, active, funny, quiet, popular, polite, lazy, creative, helpful, kind

Emily is NOT _____. She wakes up early every day, she goes to school, then she studies hard and after class she likes playing football after finishing her homework.	Isabella is _____. Everytime someone asks her help to do something, she is always happy to help!	Abigail is _____. She enjoys meeting many people and has many many friends; she often goes to parties and other social meetings.
Kevin is very _____. he practises 4 sports at the same time! He is always running and moving and loves doing exercise.	Jack is very _____. He always says, "thank you" and "please", and will never say a bad word in class or say something bad to the teachers.	Emma is very _____. Everytime she reads something in class, nobody can hear her! The teacher is always asking her to raise her voice.
Silvia is very _____. He loves creating stories, painting, and any type of art creations!	Gracie is so _____. The other day, she helped her neighbour and went shopping with her when the poor old lady was alone.	Daniel is _____. He always comes to class with a smile and loves to be around his friends.
Pablo is SO _____. He always tells the best jokes and makes everyone in the class laugh!		