South America

I hope my short blog helps you plan your travels around this great continent. Here are four of the best places I visited, starting with Venezuela in September.

Canaima, Venezuela

I didn't go to the capital, Caracas, as it isn't the safest place to visit. I only went to Canaima, which is the smallest place discussed in this blog. It's a quiet town in a beautiful national park, and people go there because it is the closest place to Angel Falls — the world's highest waterfall. I took a lot of photos, but a video is better because you can remember the noise of all that water!

Cuzco, Peru

Next, I traveled through Colombia to Peru to see some of the oldest temples in the world, built by the Incas. Cuzco, the nearest city, is very friendly to tourists, and I bought a lot of souvenirs. It also has many lovely old buildings, and you can learn more about the history of the temples if you visit the museums. Be careful to choose the best time to visit. The busiest months are June and July, and Cuzco is full of visitors then. I went in December, and it wasn't busy but it rained every day.

Example: The writer didn't visit Caracas.
