Solve the following:

1. A farmer has 234,567 apples. He buys 89,432 more apples from another farm. How many apples does he have now?

   Ans:_____

2. A school has 456,789 pencils in stock. If they give away 123,456 pencils to a charity, how many pencils are left?

   Ans:_____

3. A bookstore has 567,890 books on its shelves. They receive a new shipment of 98,765 books. What is the total number of books now?

   Ans:_____

4. A warehouse initially had 789,654 units of product. After selling 345,678 units, how many units are remaining?

   Ans:_____

5. A shipping company had 678,901 packages in their inventory. They shipped out 234,567 packages. How many packages are still in the inventory?

   Ans:_____

6. A city's public transportation system has 345,678 bus passes. They issue an additional 54,321 passes. How many passes are there in total?

   Ans:_____