

Solve the following:

1. A warehouse started with 345,678 items in stock. Over the next month, they received 123,456 more items but also shipped out 87,654 items. How many items are now in the warehouse?

Ans: _____

2. A school had 456,789 textbooks. They bought 78,234 more textbooks for the new school year. After that, they discovered that 34,567 textbooks were missing. How many textbooks are there now?

Ans: _____

3. A company's inventory began with 789,654 units. They added 145,789 units from a new shipment but then used 234,567 units for production. How many units are left in the inventory?

Ans: _____

4. A bookstore had 654,321 books on display. They received a shipment of 89,432 new books. After updating the inventory, they found that 78,345 books were damaged and had to be removed. How many books are now in good condition?

Ans: _____

5. A charity organization had 432,109 donations at the beginning of the year. They received 98,765 more donations during the year but had to return 12,345 donations due to errors. How many donations do they have now?

Ans: _____