Adverb Cloze Activity

everywhere	carefully	here	regularly	soon
always	unfortunately	deliberately	finally	annoyingly
normally	completely	gently	there	never
later	afterwards	eagerly	accidentally	enthusiastically
too	reluctantly	carelessly	hungrily	today

My younger sister Ally _____ wants to make chocolate cake! She _____ begs me to bake with her so _____ I gave in.

_____, I was pouring flour when I _____ dropped the flour bag. It exploded _____ and _____ covered the tiles. _____, I had to clean it up because Ally is _____ young.

_____, Ally wanted to help. I am a kindly big sister so I gave her the eggs and told her to _____ crack them. She _____ grabbed the eggs, smashed the shells _____ and made a mess! I knew that she hadn't done it _____, but it was annoying!

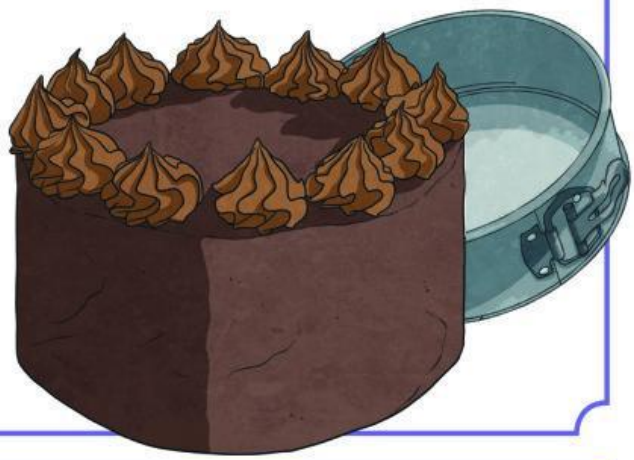

_____, my dad would come _____ and help us but he had gone shopping. So, _____, I cleaned up the egg mess and _____ tidied up.

_____, we finished and _____ went to watch TV. We _____ became absorbed in a silly TV show.

_____, I began to notice something smelly. Ally and I stared at each other; it was the cake!

We raced _____ and saw thick, black smoke pouring out of the oven. This had _____ happened before!

Because the cake was burnt, we _____ devoured something different: chocolate spread on toast! What a day!

twinkl

visit twinkl.com.au

LIVEWORKSHEETS