

Sociolinguistics

Name:.....

What does sociolinguistics study?

- a) studies the linguistic phenomena that are related to social factors
- b) frequent use of two or more languages

What is a speaking community?

- a) they share the rules that tell how to speak in different situations
- b) it is defined as the alternate use of two languages by the same speaker in a speech act.

What does dialectology study?

- a) Study differences in speech related to geographic differences
- b) study the perception of the world

What are the accent differences?

- a) To phonetic differences, that is, to differences in pronunciation
- b) they are dialects that coexist in the same place

What does BILINGUISM refer to?

- a) It refers to the use by the same speaker of two languages
- b) It refers to societies in which there are two varieties of the same language

What are the borrowings?

- a) It happens when a language incorporates features of another language.
- b) It appears when transferred items are temporary or unstable.