

Can You Match These Words to Their Definitions?

- |                                                          |                                                                       |
|----------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 payment on open account                                | a to remove benefits that help someone.                               |
| <input type="text"/>                                     |                                                                       |
| 2 to be insufficient to cover further withdrawals        | b paying money when you make an order.                                |
| <input type="text"/>                                     |                                                                       |
| 3 to earn fees for insuring other nations' foreign trade | c to have equal amounts on both sides of a record.                    |
| <input type="text"/>                                     |                                                                       |
| 4 to eliminate advantages                                | d the amount of extra money added to the price of goods and services. |
| <input type="text"/>                                     |                                                                       |
| 5 to possess little in the way of exportable commodities | e to not have enough money for more take-outs.                        |
| <input type="text"/>                                     |                                                                       |
| 6 to accomplish something by imposing tariffs            | f paying through a bank guarantee that cannot be changed.             |
| <input type="text"/>                                     |                                                                       |
| 7 to impose constraints                                  | g to reduce how much something is worth while being transported.      |
| <input type="text"/>                                     |                                                                       |
| 8 value added tax rates                                  | h to not be allowed to do or have something.                          |
| <input type="text"/>                                     |                                                                       |
| 9 to arrange for transportation                          | i to get paid for protecting trade between countries.                 |
| <input type="text"/>                                     |                                                                       |
| 10 payment on a cash with order basis                    | j to promise someone they will have what they need to act.            |
| <input type="text"/>                                     |                                                                       |
| 11 record a debit                                        | k to find out if there is too little or too much money.               |
| <input type="text"/>                                     |                                                                       |
| 12 to be prohibited from something                       | l to have few goods that can be sold to other countries.              |
| <input type="text"/>                                     |                                                                       |
| 13 to diminish the cargo's value                         | m to be open to risks or harm.                                        |
| <input type="text"/>                                     |                                                                       |
| 14 to process raw materials into manufactured goods      | n to write down money that goes out of an account.                    |
| <input type="text"/>                                     |                                                                       |
| 15 to determine a deficit or surplus                     | o to achieve a goal by charging extra money on imports.               |
| <input type="text"/>                                     |                                                                       |
| 16 to be vulnerable to dangers                           | p to set limits on what someone can do.                               |
| <input type="text"/>                                     |                                                                       |
| 17 payment by irrevocable letter of credit               | q buying something now and paying for it later without special terms. |
| <input type="text"/>                                     |                                                                       |
| 18 to assure somebody of the means to do something       | r to plan how to move things from one place to another.               |
| <input type="text"/>                                     |                                                                       |
| 19 to be balanced by an entry                            | s to change basic items into products that people can use.            |
| <input type="text"/>                                     |                                                                       |