

U2 LESSON 4

2 What's his job?
I think... he's a mechanic /
taxi driver / car park attendant.

1 What's her job?
I think... she's a lawyer / computer programmer /
receptionist.

1 Warm-up: Look at the pictures and circle your answers.

3 Match the jobs to the pictures using numbers.

- 1 shop assistant
- 2 bus driver
- 3 nurse
- 4 architect

- 5 receptionist
- 6 hair dresser
- 7 police officer
- 8 gym trainer

2 Complete Pamela's post with short forms of the verb to be.

 Pamela_98

25 likes

Hello, everyone! My name ⁽¹⁾ _____ Pamela and this is my lovely family. I ⁽²⁾ _____ a teacher. I ⁽³⁾ _____ German. I have got two children. They ⁽⁴⁾ _____ students. They ⁽⁵⁾ _____ in high school. Their school is in downtown Berlin. My husband ⁽⁶⁾ _____ a doctor. He works at the local hospital. I think his job ⁽⁷⁾ _____ very stressful.

#Sign Up to Grammar

A / an + job

We use a before words beginning with a consonant sound.

A mechanic He's a mechanic.

We use an before words beginning with a vowel sound.

An architect He's an architect.

We don't use a or an with plural nouns.

They are receptionists.

4 Look at the Sign Up to Grammar box. Then circle the correct option.

- 1 He's a / an / Ø accountant.
- 2 Mary's a / an / Ø doctor.
- 3 Jason's a / an / Ø lawyer.
- 4 They're a / an / Ø nurses.
- 5 He's a / an / Ø engineer.
- 6 They're a / an / Ø teachers.

#Useful Tip > Vocabulary

Opinion adjectives

Positive

awesome, beautiful, cute, fantastic, gorgeous, great intelligent, interesting nice, Ok, cool

Negative

bad, boring, difficult, horrible, stressful, terrible, ugly