

1 Match the sentence beginnings and endings.

- 1 My sister is addicted _C_
 - 2 I'm not usually critical _E_
 - 3 The manager was very impressed _A_
 - 4 I don't want to be mean _D_
 - 5 Katie wears whatever she wants. She's not at all bothered _F_
 - 6 Don't worry! I think they're just jealous _H_
 - 7 My mother is very loyal _G_
 - 8 To be successful, you will need to be more adventurous _B_
- A by your report on high street fashion, so well done.
B about what other people think.
C to shopping for shoes and gets at least one new pair every week.
D of how good you look.
E about her, but she doesn't have very good dress sense.
F with your designs; try some more outrageous styles.
G to one particular brand of clothing, whereas I just look for bargains.
H of what people wear, but those shoes are completely unsuitable.

2 Choose the correct options.

- 1 I'm not very loyal to / jealous of fashion trends, I just wear what I like.
- 2 I am hopeless at / impressed by choosing the right colour combinations, so I rely on my sister's advice.
- 3 You're very critical of / cautious about trying out new hair styles, you've had the same haircut for years.
- 4 You should be more adventurous with / decisive about the style you want to have, it's your choice not mine.
- 5 He isn't aware of / mean about the latest fashions, he thinks comfort is more important.
- 6 They are addicted to / bothered about buying clothes designed by Amaya Arzuaga.