

Making questions

-open and closed questions

-questions with verb to be

-questions with common verbs

1. Decide if the questions are Open or Closed. Write O for open or C for closed.

- a. Where are they from?
- b. Do you work at home?
- c. Where do you live?
- d. Are they Spanish?
- e. When do you play sports?
- f. Do you like pasta?
- g. Are you a student?
- h. When do you eat breakfast?

2. Match the questions to the answers. Write the numbers next to the letters.

a. When is he at the office?	1. At the office.
b. Does he work in an office?	2. Yes, he does.
c. Where is he?	3. Yes, he is.
d. Is he the manager in the office?	4. Everyday.

3. Complete the questions.

- a. '_____ do you eat for breakfast?' 'Cereal.'
- b. '_____ are you from?' 'Mexico.'
- c. '_____ do you have lunch?' 'At 1PM.'
- d. '_____ you like sports?' 'No, I don't.'
- e. '_____ do you like the beach?' 'Yes, I do.'

---

4. Make questions for the word or words in bold.

---

- a. She is at the park.
- b. I live in Buenos Aires.
- c. Our lesson is at 9 am.
- d. We study English on Tuesday.
- e. He plays tennis at the sports center.
- f. I drink coffee in the morning.
- g. They are at a party.