The noisiest animal is the howler monkey found in Central and South America. It is heard 5 km away.

A giraffe has the longest tongue among all mammals. It is about 18-20 inches long.

Giraffes have a short-necked cousin, called Okapi. Okapis live in the dense forest of Congo.

The blue whale weighs as much as thirty elephants and is as long as three greyhound buses.

Answer the following questions :

1. Which animal is the only flying mammal ? _____
2. Which bamboo-eating bear has a baby that weighs less than an apple? _____
3. Which animal's group is known as a 'pride'? _____
4. Which is the biggest of the Great Apes? _____
5. Which bird can fly straight up, down and backward? _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS