

Transform the following sentences using a phrasal verb from the list: take off, take after, bring up, bring on, bring down, get out of, get over, get by. Change the verb tense when necessary

- She resembles her grandmother.

- As soon as he saw the police, he left quickly.

- We don't have much money, but we manage to survive.

- Stress can cause serious health problems.

- He finally recovered from the difficult breakup.

- I hate it when people mention politics during a friendly conversation.

- She always avoids doing her homework by making excuses.

- That sad movie really made me feel down for the rest of the day.
