

Clause of Concessions Transformation

Exercise 1: Rewrite these sentences with the given words or phrases.

1. Although he lives far from school, he never comes to class late.
→ Despite
2. Though he had enough money, he refused to buy a new car.
→ In spite of
3. In spite of his age, Mr. David runs four miles before breakfast.
→ Although
4. Though the test is difficult, I can do it.
→ Despite
5. Though David is kind to me, I am not satisfied.
→ In spite
6. Though it was stormy, he managed to work.
→ In spite
7. Though it rained heavily, I went to school on time.
→ Despite
8. Although his book was successful, he decided not to write any more.
→ In spite of
9. We went out in spite of the heavy rain.
→ Although
10. Despite his injured foot, he managed to walk to the nearest town.
→ Although
11. Even though we live on the same street, we hardly ever see each other.
→ In spite
12. They are always happy although they have very little money.
→ Despite
13. In spite of having many children, they still wanted to have more.
→ Although
14. She doesn't earn much money, even though she works very hard.
→ She doesn't earn much money despite
15. Even though he doesn't know how to cook, he tries to cook every day.
→ Despite
16. Even though Alex thought carefully while doing that exam, she made lots of mistakes.
→ In spite of
17. Although she doesn't earning much money, she spends like a millionaire.
→ Despite
18. Although he had much experience in machinery, he didn't succeed in repairing this machine.
→ Despite

19. Although she eats lots of food, she is still very slim.

→ In spite of

20. He couldn't sleep although he was very tired.

→ In spite of