

Name: Class: Date:

MINI TEST 10

Question 1. We should take a _____ at what is happening in our own backyard before criticizing what is taking place in other countries.

A. look B. fetch C. knock D. nap

Question 2. The prime minister must demonstrate to the country that he is really _____ of his government.

A. in silence B. in a queue C. in control D. in demand

Question 3. That would mean Orion's new pricing plan could _____ from April next year.

A. make progress B. go down C. take effect D. come apart

Question 4. Our spending is _____ and massive federal debt is hurting our recovery.

A. out of stock B. out of date C. out of control D. out of work

Question 5. Dr Mahathir gives the impression of believing that at least he will not _____ of things.

A. come to power B. make a mess C. make a move D. take a guess

Question 6. Microsoft basically do not want to take the _____ for providing good products.

A. initiative B. time C. opportunity D. responsibility

Question 7. I began to feel under the _____ on Thursday morning after leaving Haslemere.

A. name B. weather C. table D. hood

Question 8. Organisers now plan to beat the Guinness _____ at the same event next year.

A. round of applause B. world record C. great pride D. international awards

Question 9. After so many years in a stuffy office job, she longed _____ adventure around the world.

A. for

B. at

C. of

D. from

Question 10. I'm not a person who wants to make a _____ but it was a shock to read that letter.

A. promise

B. mess

C. fuss

D. request

Question 11. She has a consulting room upstairs and a group meeting room on the ground _____.

A. face

B. floor

C. flat

D. plane

Question 12. Most camps welcome such visits _____ you make an appointment ahead of time.

A. as soon as

B. as long as

C. even though

D. now that

Question 13. You'd think it a waste _____ time to hammer a candidate with no chance of winning.

A. at

B. about

C. for

D. of

