

Choose the correct option.

1. There are not (many/much/few) eggs in the fridge, so we can't bake the cake.
2. There is (a few/much/little) milk left in the bottle, not enough for a bowl of cereal.
3. I need (a lot of/much/few) apples to make an apple pie for all our guests.
4. There isn't (many/much/few) water in the glass.
5. We have (few/a lot of/little) bread, so it's not enough for everyone's sandwiches.
6. There are (a few/much/little) cookies left in the jar, just enough for us to share.
7. There is (many/a little/a few) flour, but we need more to make pizza dough.
8. There are (little/few/a lot of) bananas on the counter, so everyone can have one.
9. There isn't (many/much/few) sugar in my coffee, but I like it bitter.
10. We need (little/a lot of/much) eggs to make enough omelettes for everyone.
