

Use of English

Living in a New City

Read the text below, choose the correct answer (A, B, C, D)

John has recently moved to a new city for work. He lives in a small apartment downtown and he enjoys the convenience of being close to his office. Every morning, he walks (1) _____ work, and he usually meets his colleagues for coffee.

Right now, he is exploring the local cafes and restaurants, trying to find his favorite spots. He is meeting his neighbors later this week to get to know the community better. Although he loves the energy of the city, he finds it (2) _____ in the evenings. The apartment is too small for all of his things, and he doesn't have enough space for a proper workspace.

Next month, he is going to look for a bigger apartment. He (3) _____ closer to the park, where it's quieter. He is planning to explore more of the city's cultural spots at the weekends. Despite the challenges, he feels (4) _____ about the new opportunities. The city (5) _____ amazing with all its vibrant streets and activities.

1	A at	B to	C in	D ---
2	A too noisy	B noisy too	C enough noisy	D noisy enough
3	A is probably going to move	B will probably move	C is probably moving	D probably moves
4	A excite	B exciting	C excited	D to excite
5	A appearing	B appear	C is appearing	D apprears

