

Activities for Teaching Vocabulary / Dina Shterenqas.

A. Wordwall Activities:

Way to Go, "Fire on the Carmel":

1. <https://wordwall.net/resource/11723939> Balloon Pop (Matching words to pictures)
2. <https://wordwall.net/resource/11723830> Match Up (Matching Words to pictures)
3. <https://wordwall.net/resource/11723645> Dividing into positive / negative words
4. <https://wordwall.net/resource/11724143> True or False
5. <https://wordwall.net/resource/12063867> Synonyms and Opposites

B. Quizlet:

Way to Go, "Fire on the Carmel":

<https://quizlet.com/574061417/way-to-go-fire-on-the-carmel-dina-shterenqas-flash-cards/>

C. Kahoot:

Way to Go, "Fire on the Carmel":

<https://create.kahoot.it/share/fire-on-the-carmel-dina-shterenqas/28f8a48f-efaf-4101-8f35-57163ea91827>

After I introduce new vocabulary in class, I try to engage the students in game-like activities so they'll be motivated to go over the material. I sometime choose to send them links to graded assignments (Kahoot Assign, Wordwall set assignment, Liveworksheets) while in other times I want them to practice freely without the pressure of grades. They seem to enjoy it and there's no doubt it helps them remember the new lexical items better.