

Crops: a cultivated plant that is grown as food, especially a grain, fruit, or

Melt: make or become liquefied by heat

Drought: a prolonged period of abnormally low rainfall, leading to a shortage of water.

Starve: No food

Flood: cover or submerge (a place or area) with water.

Lose home: no place to live

Rise: move from a lower position to a higher one; come or go up.

