CONDITIONAL CLAUSES:
Fill in the correct tense.

(1) If I had received this letter, I ..... (tear) it.

(2) The student will have a lot of homework to do if he ..... (not do) some of it at school.

(3) If the sun ..... (shine) tomorrow, we would have a picnic in the park.

(4) If they ..... (not have) enough money, they would not have a party.

(5) Phil would have been extremely happy if he ..... (catch) at least one fish.

(6) I ..... (lay) the table if mum had asked me.

(7) You would have to go to prison if you ..... (steal) a lot of money.

(8) Mum will be extremely sad if the boy ..... (not write) a good test.

(9) I would tell you a secret if you ..... (keep) it.

(10) Dad would have repaired your CD-player if you ..... (bring) it to him.

CONDITIONAL CLAUSES:
Rewrite the sentences forming an appropriate conditional clause

(1) He did not say anything. That's why he failed the exam.

.....

.....

(2) Grandma won't get a dog because she lives in a small flat.

.....

.....

(3) Tim has good marks because he pays attention in school.

.....

.....

(4) She ate too little. She was hungry an hour later.

.....

.....

(5) You use your mobile phone a lot, so you have large phone bills.

.....

.....

LIVEWORKSHEETS