

Choose the correct option.

1. She doesn't eat (a lot of/many/little) meat because she wants to be a vegetarian.
2. There isn't (many/little/much) sugar in this lemonade.
3. He has (few/much/a lot of) hobbies outside of work, so he doesn't have much free time.
4. There is (a lot of/many/few) coffee left in the pot, so feel free to take another cup.
5. I saw (a lot of/little/much) tomatoes in the fridge, enough to make sauce for the pasta.
6. There are (much/few/a lot of) oranges in the basket, more than we need for the juice.
7. We need (a lot of/little/many) time to finish this project, so we should start soon.
8. There are (few/little/much) chairs in the living room, please bring more from the kitchen.
9. There isn't (many/a few/much) rice for dinner, so we need to make something else.
10. I have (many/little/few) friends at school, so I never feel lonely during breaks.

LIVEWORKSHEETS