

Choose the correct option.

1. They have (much/a lot of/little) pets at home, so they spend a lot of money on pet food.
2. There isn't (much/many/little) pasta left in the pantry, so we need to buy some for dinner.
3. She bought (few/a lot of/much) shirts at the store, so she won't need to go shopping again soon.
4. There are (much/little/a lot of) trees in the garden.
5. We don't need (many/much/few) time to finish the task, so we can take a break soon.
6. There is (many/little/few) juice in the glass, so you can drink it all.
7. We don't have (many/much/few) potatoes for dinner, so we have to cook something else.
8. There are (a few/much/little) students who like soccer, so we can start a small team.
9. We need (much/a few/little) onions for the soup for the right flavour.
10. There aren't (much/a lot of/few) chairs in the kitchen, so we have to buy more from IKEA.