A funny thing happened to my friend and me last week. We were shopping at the market. We saw a table with a lot of different kinds of fruit on it- apples mangoes bananas and pears. We saw a few people smelling the fruit. I picked up a mango and smelled it. It smelled really nice, then I saw a card next to it. It said ' try a little'!

' Okay, I'll try it, i thought.
I put it in my mouth. Just then, my friend shouted 'stop Richard, it isn't fruit!'
'But it looks like a mango and it smells like a mango,' I said.
' But it isn't a mango, and it doesn't taste like a mango, said my friend.
'How do you know?' i asked
' Because it's soap! Look! You can't eat it, or any of them!'
Everyone was laughing at my mistake. My face was red
