In the footwear and bags department, I found a lovely bag, with a 40% up to / off / sale. It had a two-year fitting room / guarantee / receipt, so I could get my money back if it broke. I wanted to go to the fitting room / queue / car park to try them on, but there was a long bargain / queue / sale – there were about ten other people waiting – and I didn't want to wait. So, I went to the cash machine / fitting room / toilet and paid for everything.

When I got home, I tried the trousers on. They were the right size, but they didn't fit / pass / suit me at all – they looked terrible on me. So, I decided to take them back and ask for a receipt / refund / return. But I couldn't find my footwear / receipt / shopping bag, so the shop assistant said he couldn't give me my money back. Next time, I'll be more careful when I shop at the sales.
