

Grammar training

In/ On/ At

Tick the correct sentences.

1. Let's meet at the café at noon for lunch.
2. The party will be at Tom's house next Sunday.
3. I will see you at 3 o'clock tomorrow.
4. We'll arrive at the airport at two hours.
5. In the morning, I usually have coffee first, but I'm trying to drink tea instead.
6. I'll meet you in the park later in this afternoon.
7. We're going on vacation in August, so we're excited about the trip.
8. I live on the third floor, but I can still hear the noise from the street.
9. We're going to meet on Christmas Day and not at Halloween this year.
10. I left my keys on the table near the door.
11. She is going to meet her friend on Friday afternoon for coffee.
12. The book was published in 2020, and it became an instant bestseller.
13. The train will arrive on platform 3, so let's be there on time.
14. She found the answer in the textbook, and now she understands the topic.
15. I'll see you at the bus stop in the morning before school starts.
16. Sarah will visit her grandmother in Paris next summer.
17. I saw your notebook on the desk in the classroom this morning.
18. The lecture will be in room 205, just down the hall.
19. She found the lost earring on the floor near the sofa.
20. The Smith family usually goes camping in every summer.
21. We'll have our next class in the afternoon on Friday.
22. He's in bed because he was feeling sick this morning.

