Match TV Programs with their Definitions:

1. Documentary	A. A show that focuses on real-life events and situations, often unscripted, with ordinary people as participants.
2. News	B. A fictional show that portrays crime investigations, usually involving detectives and law enforcement.
3. Talk Show	C. A daily or weekly television show that covers current events and major headlines.
4. Reality Show	D. A humorous show, usually 30 minutes long, with recurring characters and a light-hearted plot.
5. Game Show	E. A show where guests, often celebrities, discuss a wide range of topics, hosted by a charismatic personality.
6. Soap Opera	F. A show in which contestants compete in various challenges to win prizes, often involving quizzes or physical tasks.
7. Drama Series	G. A program that focuses on cooking techniques, recipes, and often features professional chefs or home cooks.
8. Comedy Series	H. A television series with serious themes and emotional conflicts, usually running multiple seasons.
9. Cooking Show	I. A non-fiction show that focuses on a specific topic, event, or issue and educates the audience about it.
10. Travel Show	J. A scripted series that tells long-running, highly dramatic stories, often with romance and complicated family relationships.
11. Nature Show	K. A show that features talented performers competing for recognition or prizes in singing, dancing, or other skills.
12. Music Competition	L. A show that revolves around scientific discoveries, futuristic technology, and often takes place in space or futuristic worlds.
13. Talent Show	M. A humorous, often absurd, animated show for children or adults.
14. Sitcom	N. A program that showcases music artists competing against each other to become the next big star.
15. Sports Broadcast	O. A show that explores different countries and cultures, often featuring a host traveling to different destinations.
16. Crime Series	P. A late-night show typically featuring celebrity interviews, comedy sketches, and performances.
17. Animation	Q. A live broadcast that covers sporting events such as football, basketball, or the Olympics.
18. Science Fiction Show	R. A fictional show that focuses on historical events and figures, often dramatizing real moments from the past.
19. Historical Drama	S. A program focused on the natural world, showcasing animals, plants, and ecosystems around the globe.
20. Late-Night Show	T. A show where contestants perform various tasks or talents in front of a live audience or judges.

LIVEWORKSHEETS