

Use likely, unlikely, correctly to fill the gaps below.

- 1 In this economy, to find a buyer for the house.

- 2 In this economy, to find a buyer for the house.

- 3 increase again in November.

- 4 to increase again in November.

Choose the correct forms of likely, unlikely for these sentences.

- 1 It's _____ get their money back.
 - a. unlikely that they will
 - b. unlikely to

- 2 _____ get their money back.
 - a. It's unlikely to
 - b. They will unlikely
 - c. They are unlikely to

- 3 People think _____ win.
 - a. they're the most likely to
 - b. it's most likely
 - c. they it's most likely

- 4 _____ give them a loan.
 - a. Banks will unlikely
 - b. Banks are very unlikely that will
 - c. It's very unlikely that banks will

- 5 _____ give them a loan.
 - a. Banks are very unlikely to
 - b. It's very unlikely banks to
 - c. Banks are very unlikely that will