There has been a lot of _____ recently about the role of money in sport. Some _____ believe that sport has become a business and, therefore, that we are forgetting the original meaning of sport as a game.

In my _____, however, money is good for the world of sport for two reasons. First of _____, money allows the best sportsmen and sportswomen to spend all their time practicing their sports. They don't have to do other jobs just to earn money. As a _____, they can become a lot better at their chosen sports.

_____, when there is more money, sports might become a lot safer. For _____, sports teams could then afford more full-time doctors to take care of their players. On the other _____, there is a risk that money gives the richest people, teams and countries an unfair advantage. For this _____, most people from poorer teams or countries rarely have the chance of reaching the top of their sports.

_____, however, I believe that more money generally makes sport better.
