

Student's Worksheet

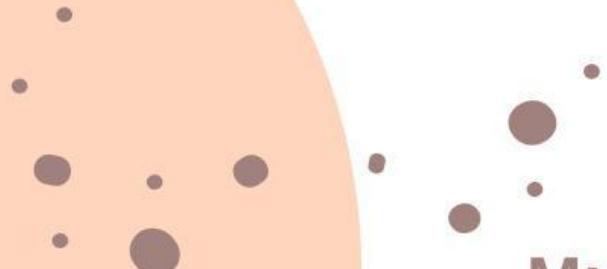

Recount Text

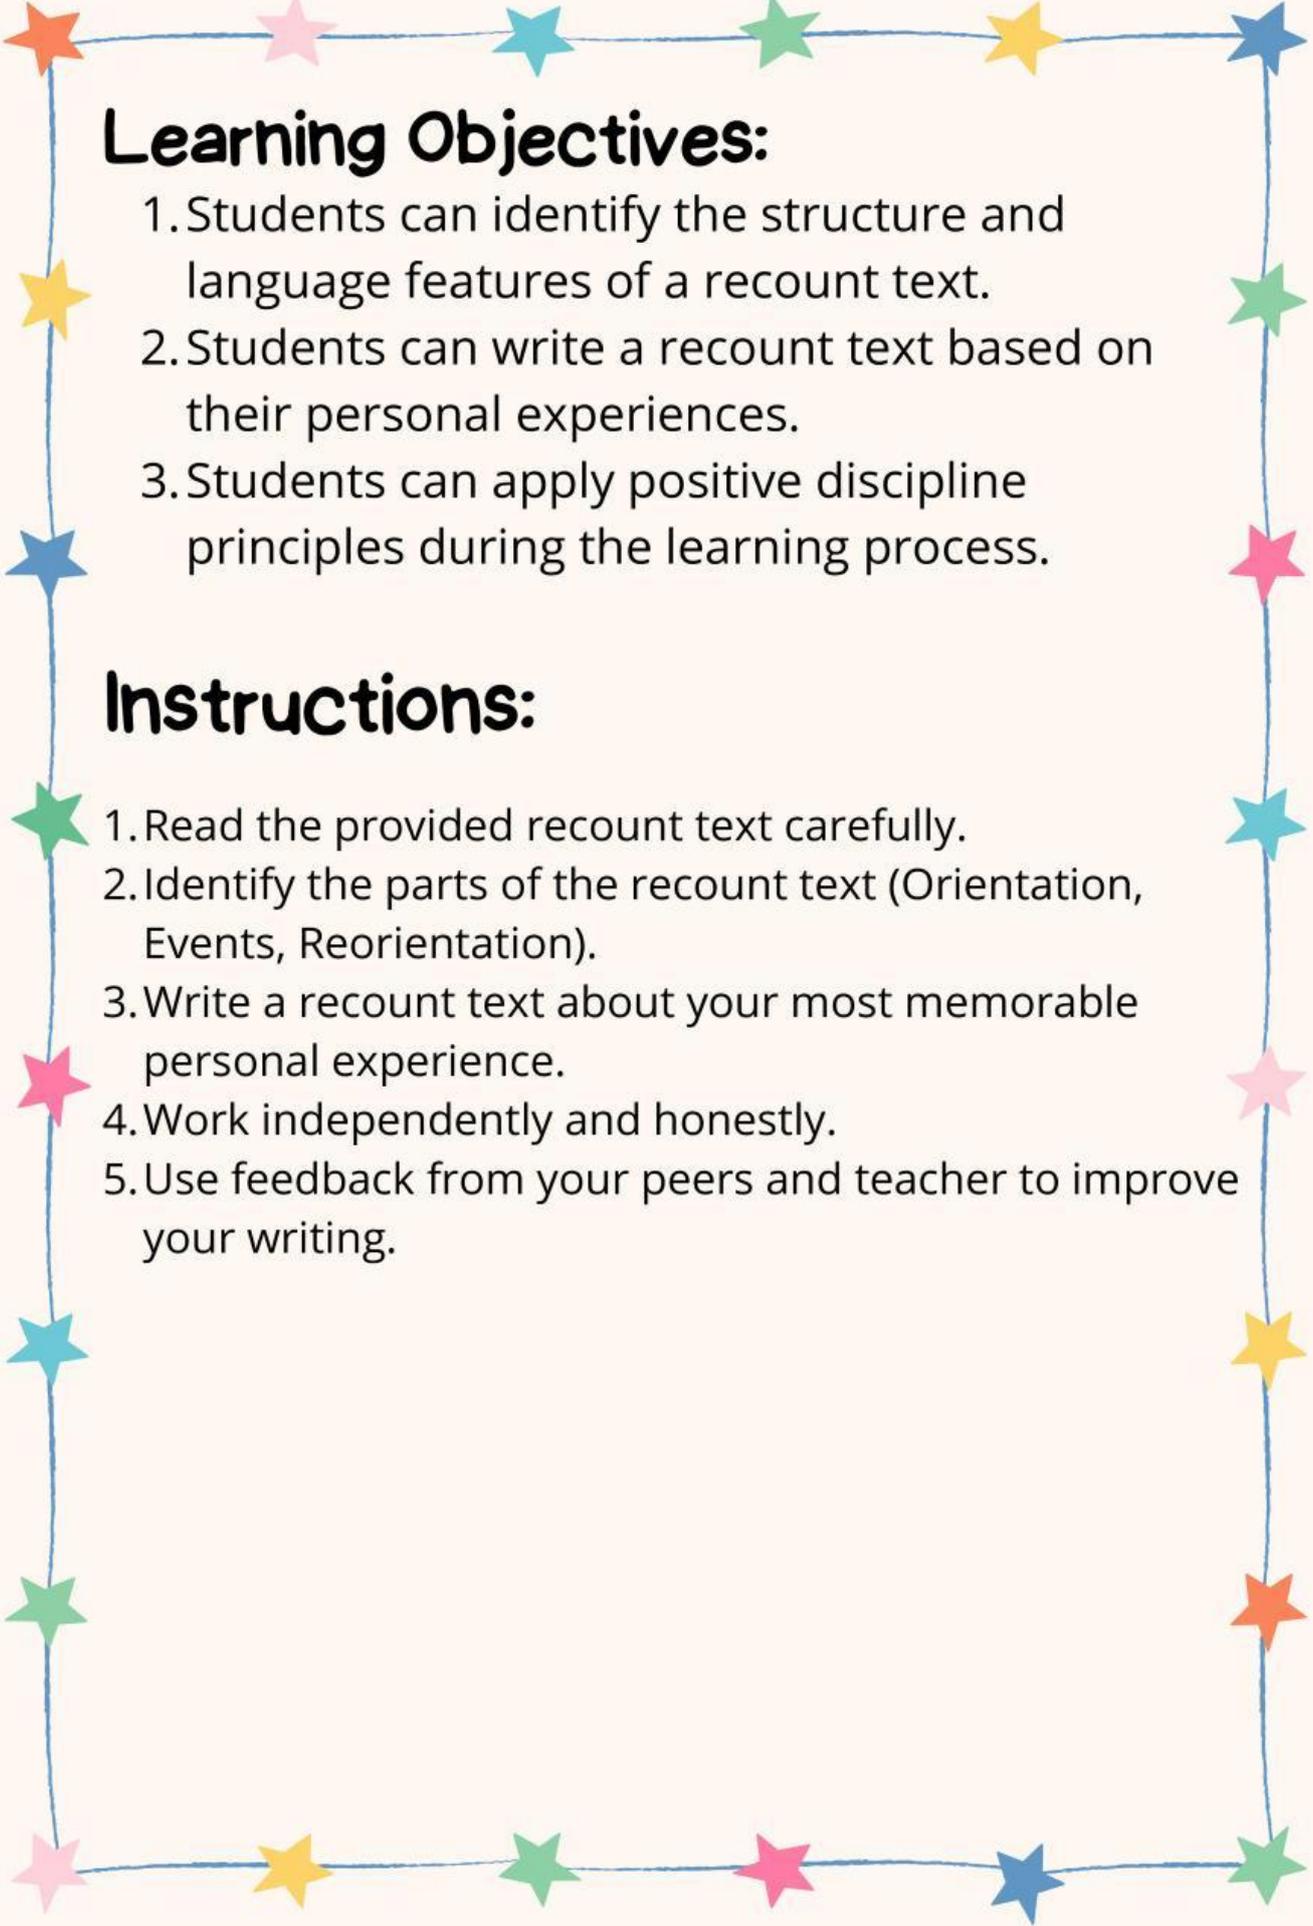

Theme:
My Unforgettable Experience

GRADE X

Muslikhah, S.Pd

Learning Objectives:

1. Students can identify the structure and language features of a recount text.
2. Students can write a recount text based on their personal experiences.
3. Students can apply positive discipline principles during the learning process.

Instructions:

1. Read the provided recount text carefully.
2. Identify the parts of the recount text (Orientation, Events, Reorientation).
3. Write a recount text about your most memorable personal experience.
4. Work independently and honestly.
5. Use feedback from your peers and teacher to improve your writing.

Activity 1

Write a story based on the picture . Organize your story based on the structure of recount text. Don't forget to use past tense, conjunction .Tell it chronologically

My Holiday at the Beach

Oreientation

Event 1

Event 2

Event 3

Re-Orientation

My Holiday at the Beach

Orientation

Last weekend, I went to the beach with my family. We left early in the morning and arrived just before noon. The sun was shining, and the weather was perfect.

Event 1

.....

Event 2

.....

Event 3

.....

Reorientation

.....

.....

Activity 2

Remind your unforgettable experience together with your friend. Write your memorable story. Organize your story based on the structure of recount text. Don't forget to use past tense and conjunction .Tell it chronologically!

OUTLINE

Title :

Orientation :

Event 1 :

Event 2 :

Reorientation :

Activity 3

Individual Assignment

Remind again your Past Experience . Tell it to your friend. You can present it orally, in written or in video . To make it easier ,please make an outline first

- 1.Orientation: Introduce who, when, and where your experience happened.
- 2.Events: Tell the events of the experience in chronological order.
- 3.Reorientation: Write a conclusion or your feelings after the experience.

Outline:

Title: _____

Orientation:

Events:

Reorientation:

