

1 Match A, B, and C to make four sentences.

A	B	C
I love my new flat	and so but because	I like your flat too. it's very beautiful. please come and see it soon. unfortunately there isn't a garden.

2 Make similar sentences about where you live using and, so, but, or because.

I like my house/flat/room ...

3 Complete the sentences with and, so, but, or because.

- I don't have a TV in my bedroom because I don't want one.
- Our flat's really small, _____ it's comfortable.
- The rent is cheap _____ it's above a busy restaurant.
- My wife and I like sailing _____ we live near the sea.
- We like living here _____ it's opposite the park.
- We don't have a garden, _____ we have a small balcony.
- There's a lot to do _____ a lot to see in our town.
- Our best friends live in the next street _____ we often see them.

4 Read about Megan's new flat. Choose the correct linking words.

T 4.9 Listen and check.

5 Write some notes about where you live.

- Where is it?
- Is it old or new?
- How many rooms are there?
- Is there a garden?
- Who do you live with?
- Do you like it? Why? What is the best thing?

Talk to a partner about your notes.

6 Write a description of your home. Use linking words to join ideas. Read it aloud to the class.

My new flat

My new flat is near the centre of town, (1) but / so I often walk to work. It's not very big, (2) but / because it's very comfortable! There's just one bedroom, a living room, (3) because / and quite a big kitchen with a table in the centre. This is good (4) because / so I love cooking, (5) because / and I can invite my friends to dinner. The living room has one big window. It faces south, (6) but / so it's always very sunny. I have two comfortable, old armchairs, (7) but / so I don't have a sofa (8) because / and the room is quite small.

There isn't a garden, (9) because / but there's a small balcony in my bedroom. I want to put a chair there (10) and / so I can sit in the sun on summer evenings.

I love my new flat for many reasons: the big kitchen, the sunny living room, (11) but / so most of all I love it (12) and / because it's my first home!