The Twins

By Henry Sambrooke Leigh

- In form and feature, face and limb
I grew so like my brother,
That folks got taking me for him,
And each for one another.
- 5 It puzzled all our kith and kin,
It reached a fearful pitch;
For one of us was born a twin,
Yet not a soul knew which.
- 10 One day, to make the matter worse,
Before our names were fixed,
As we were being washed by nurse,
We got completely mixed;
And thus, you see, by fate's decree,
Or rather nurse's whim,
- 15 My brother John got christened me,
And I got christened him.
- 20 This fatal likeness even dogged
My footsteps when at school,
And I was always getting flogged,
For John turned out a fool.
I put this question, fruitlessly,
To everyone I knew,
'What would you do, if you were me,
To prove that you, were you?'
