A. Fill in the Blanks

Directions: Review the role play of a job interview below. Complete the sentences by filling in the blank with the correct form of the present perfect.

An Interview with June

(June is the job applicant, hoping to get a job as a writer. Listen to her interview.)

Employer: Good morning June. Thank you for joining us this morning.

June: Thank you.It's good to be here.

Employer: What _____ _____ (you, be) your lifelong ambition?

June: You know, I _____ _____ _____ (always, want) to be a writer of children's books.

Employer: And you're a writer now!

PRESENT PERFECT TENSE
LISTENING COMPREHENSION

June: Yes, I_____ _____ _____ (always, dream) of writing children's books.

Employer: _____ _____ _____ (you, inspire) by someone?

June: Yes, I _____. Dr. Seus _____ _____ (inspire) me. He is a writer of children's books.

Employer: What are some things you _____ _____ (do) you're very proud of?

June: I _____ _____ (write) stories about children in different countries. Newspapers all over the world _____ _____ (print) these stories for people to read.

Employer: What is something you _____ _____ _____ (always, want) to do?

June: I _____ _____ _____ (always, dream) of hiking across England.

Employer: What is something that you _____ _____ _____ (always, want) to learn?

June: I _____ _____ _____ (always, want) to learn to speak Chinese.

Employer: One last question. What's the secret to your success?

June: I _____ _____ _____ (never, give up). I _____ _____ _____ (always try) and _____ (try) again to reach my goal.

B. ACT IT OUT! After you check your answers, pair with a classmate and do a role play for this job interview. Each of you takes a part then switches roles. Do this role play 2 times as a job applicant and an employer.

LIVEWORKSHEETS