

Listen carefully and answer the questions

(Keeping the listening plays as many as three times shows that you are nailing it at your listening skills)

1. Use The Virtual Pencil to Match the words with their definitions:

a) Restock b) Rush c) Prep station d) Review	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. A specific area in the kitchen used to prepare ingredients2. To go over something again for accuracy3. A period of high demand with lots of orders4. To refill items that are running low
--	---

2. Fill in the gaps using the correct vocabulary:

1. After the lunch _____, Sam cleans the kitchen.
2. John likes to _____ his team's tasks in the morning.
3. Sam needs to _____ the fridge with fresh ingredients.
4. The _____ is always kept clean and organized before making pizzas.

3. True or False:

1. Sam closes the pizza restaurant around 6 p.m.
2. John's main task in the morning is to review emails and prepare for meetings.
3. Sam spends his afternoon relaxing after the lunch rush.
4. Both John and Sam have time to relax after work.

4. Choose the correct option:

1. Sam meets with suppliers to place orders for:
 - a) Furniture
 - b) Fresh ingredients
 - c) Drinks
2. John finishes work:
 - a) In the morning
 - b) At 6 p.m.
 - c) At midnight

5. Short Answer:

1. What does Sam do after the evening rush?
2. How does John manage his team's tasks in the morning?
3. When does Sam usually place his orders for ingredients?