WHAT TO DO IN DENVER

1. WHEN IT'S RAINING

Go to the Molly Brown House Museum

The Molly Brown House Museum is a big, beautiful house on 1340 Pennsylvania Avenue in the center of Denver. Molly Brown is world famous because she was on the Titanic. You can take a tour of Molly's house. You can see interesting exhibitions, including clothes and other items from her trip on the Titanic. If the sun comes out, you can walk in Molly's yard or sit in her gardens.

2. WHEN THE SUN IS SHINING

Go to Red Rocks Park

Red Rocks Park is a mountain park in southwest Denver with excellent views of the city. The park gets its name from big red rocks that are special to this area. The rocks are over 290 million years old. You can walk around the park and take pictures of famous rocks like Creation Rock, Ship Rock, or Stage Rock. Or, you can go to a concert and listen to bands like U2 and Coldplay. The theater can seat almost 10,000 people.

3. WHEN IT'S COLD

Go to Glennwood Hot Springs

Glennwood Hot Springs is a hotel with an outdoor pool that's open all year. It isn't in Denver, but it's nearby in the Rocky Mountains. The hotel has two pools. One is a small pool. The other pool is 405 feet long! The water in the big pool is always 90° F, even in January! If you don't like to swim in the cold, visit the spa or enjoy lunch at the restaurant.
