

Hey Ben, have you thought about what we should do this weekend?

Analyse the use of asking and giving Expression

I was thinking maybe we could go hiking. What do you think about that?

Hiking sounds fun, but I'm not sure if the weather will be good. Do you think we should check the forecast first?

That's a good idea. But even if it rains, we could always go to the indoor rock climbing gym. How does that sound to you?

Indoor rock climbing could be really cool! I've never tried it before. Do you think it will be too difficult for beginners like us?

Not at all! They have different levels for everyone. But if you're not into it, we could always catch a movie instead. What's your opinion on that?

A movie could be a nice, relaxing option. Any particular film you have in mind?

I heard the new superhero movie is really good. Let's check the showtimes
