Listening exercise:

Spot the Difference:

Classrooms

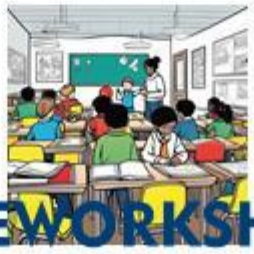

Instructions: Listen carefully to the two descriptions of classrooms. Then, drag the right sentences which describe Classroom A and Classroom B.

Computer Usage	• A student in the corner is working on a computer. • One student is typing on a computer.
Student Activity	• Some students are actively discussing and working together in pairs. • Some students are working in groups and others are focused on their tasks.
Whiteboard Details	• The whiteboard is mostly empty, with only a few words written on it. • The whiteboard has notes written on it.
Project Focus	• There is one group collaborating on a project at the back. • Students are involved in various projects and materials scattered across the desks.
Teacher's Action	• The teacher is giving instructions. • The teacher is talking to the class.
Decorations	• The walls have several colorful posters. • The walls are decorated with posters.

Details	Classroom A	Classroom B
Teacher's Action
Student Activity
Project Focus
Computer Usage
Decorations
Whiteboard Details

LIVEWORKSHEETS