

Listening exercise: Spot the Difference: Classrooms

Instructions: Listen carefully to the two descriptions of classrooms. Then, drag the right sentences which describe Classroom A and Classroom B.

Computer Usage	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A student in the corner is working on a computer. One student is typing on a computer.
-----------------------	---

Student Activity	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Some students are actively discussing and working together in pairs. Some students are working in groups and others are focused on their tasks.
-------------------------	--

Whiteboard Details	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The whiteboard is mostly empty, with only a few words written on it. The whiteboard has notes written on it.
---------------------------	---

Project Focus	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> There is one group collaborating on a project at the back. Students are involved in various projects and materials scattered across the desks.
----------------------	---

Teacher's Action	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The teacher is giving instructions. The teacher is talking to the class.
-------------------------	---

Decorations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The walls have several colorful posters. The walls are decorated with posters.
--------------------	---

Details	Classroom A	Classroom B
Teacher's Action
Student Activity
Project Focus
Computer Usage
Decorations
Whiteboard Details

