

Fill in the blanks:

lemons	Idea	expensive	price	made
lemonade	dollars	Ice-cold	twins	rode

Lemonade Stand

Rosa counted dimes and quarters. “We have five,” she said.

Jo grinned. “Now can we buy that magic kit?” “Not yet,” said Rosa.

“But we can do a magic trick.” “How?” asked Jo. “First, we need some lemons,” said Rosa. “Then, we’ll turn the into money!”

Later the set up a table and a sign. They had pitchers of lemonade and cups.

A boy by on a bike. “Hey!” Rosa shouted. “Want some lemonade? It only costs two dollars!”

“Two dollars for?” said the boy. “Are you crazy?”

“..... lemonade!” Rosa shouted to a woman. The woman looked at the “No, thanks,” she said.

“Hmm...,” thought Jo. “I have an!” Soon lots of people were buying lemonade.

“Good idea, Jo,” said Rosa. “Two dollars was too expensive. Fifty cents is a better price.”

“Look!” said Jo. “We twenty dollars! I know what to buy now.”

“The magic kit?” asked Rosa. “Nope,” said Jo. “More lemons!”

Answer these questions:

1. What did Jo want to buy at the beginning of the story?

- A. a magic kit
- B. a lemon
- C. a table

2. What did the girls set up outside?

- A. a bank
- B. a magic show
- C. a table and a sign

3. Why did no one want to buy the lemonade?

- A. It tasted really bad.
- B. Two dollars was too expensive.
- C. It was cold outside.

4. How much money did Jo and Rosa make?

- A. twenty dollars
- B. fifty cents
- C. two dollars

5. What did Jo want to buy at the end of the story?

- A. more magic kits
- B. more lemons
- C. more pitchers